From the National Intelligencer.

THE DESPERATE STRAITS OF THE RADICAL PARTY—ITS ANXIETY FOR SELF-PRESERVATION.

No party in any free country under heaven ever committed so many crimes against liberty, law and civilization as the dominant party have committed for the last eight years, even while they presumed to be the very apostles of liberty, and the foremost and most spotless champions of human freedom. Enslaving where they claimed to emancipate, destroying where they claimed to build up, undermining where they claimed to be strengthening and making broader the foundations of civil liberty, rebellious where they claimed to be patriotic, fiendish almost where they claimed to be saints, they have been, beyond all that could have been prophesied, beyond all that could have been believed, a curse to this country, and an ensample of peculiar and warning lawlessness, treachery, hypocrisy and crime to every other. True to nothing good; considerate to nothing established; heedful to nothing wise; faithful to nothing promised; false to the peace of the country; false to the unity of the country; false to the institutions of the country; false to the black race and to the white race; false to the great body of the people, with all their manifold and mighty interests, and false to the form of Government under which we live; corrupt through and through, even by their own confessions, to very rottenness; debauched beyond all precedent or example; revolutionary from first to last in all their important aims and acts, instead of deserving party salvation, for which they are striving, as is manifest in their reaching out for new issues which will keep them together, they have richly merited common execration and the gibbet.

No one can with candor and the best use of his reason survey the course of the party from the beginning to the present time, whose memory has run along pari passu with the acts of the party, can fail to arrive at this conclusion. They would seem to have started out with the idea that the American Union was one grand battle ground for them alone; one grand plain on which they, like bandi ti, could build up their fortunes; one boundless fertile field, from which they were created to gather spoils, and which should be to them a rendezvous and a stamping ground. On this they have shouted, reveled, reeled, drank blood, and waylaid at will. On this, as do savages in their roaring wilds, have they planned, muffled in hypocrisy, campaign after campaign against the American people, their lives and liberties, and insidiously put forth edict after edict against their institutions and the integrity of their Union. On this tyrants of every sort, little and great, formidable and contemptible, have been created, and tyrannies of every sort, of little and of great measure, perpetrated. From this have been sent forth the poisonous distillments that have from time to time worked the public mind well-nigh to madness, and by the inoculated distemper fitted the people of one-half the country for cutting the throats of the people of the other half. From this, forgetting or despising the high teachings of inspiration whose Divine authority no Christian creature question have they sought to raise the hand of every man against his brother; to create or perpetuate enmity among fellow-countrymen; to imbue them with the hot and merciless spirit of the roaming outlaw, rather than with the spirit of men born and nurtured in the lap of peace, to whom the atmosphere of peace is their native air, who have been taught to curb, not to cultivate, their stormy passions, and to whom sobriety of thought and temperate mindedness is an inheritance. From this have they planned, and step by step, and year by year, calling all passions, prejudices, revenges, criminations, and bitter memories to their aid, been carrying out the overthrow of the American Republic, in order to the establishment of an empire in its place, as seen in the existence of public journals, founded under their auspices and supported by their means, openly advocating such a change in the form of government.—All this and much more have they done, and taught and inflicted; and in this course they have come at last to see, or at least to fear, that the veil which they have worn is being penetrated and the mask torn away by the American people, and they feel the necessity for new devices, new tactics, a new cloak behind which they may, unsuspected, pursue, to their accomplishment the plans which they have laid out, trusting now as heretofore to the favoring credulity of the country. * * * * *

FAST LIFE IN FRANCE.

PARIS, May 18, 1869.

I once used to smile as I passed Baron de Rothschild's door and observed the gas-lamps were unlit on bright nights when the moon was full. I then thought economy unworthy the master of so great an estate. I know now there is no way by which noble fortunes are kept unimpaired except by economy. I know how man's engagements keep pace with the accumulation of wealth; how embarrassed for money very rich men frequently are; and how severe is the struggle to maintain an equilibrium between revenue and expense. The walls of Paris are at this moment covered with bills announcing the sale of the picture gallery belonging to Count Koucheleff Besboroko.—It is said to be the last remnant left—and it belongs to creditors—of the magnificent estate of which he entered into possession just nine years ago. It then was valued at $11,250,000 in gold. He traveled through the East, Southern and Western Europe in great state. There was no whim he refused to gratify. He chartered a steamship to convey him from one port to another. He had special railway trains for his party. He gave princely entertainments. He was lavish of presents. He had a numerous retinue. It was his sister who married Mr. Douglas Home, the medium. It was he who carried M. Alex. Dumas to Russia. Nine years ago he was master of $660,000 annual income. It was not enough for him. He could not live on less than $1,200,000 year—his expenses several years are said to have exceeded this amount of money—and now nothing remains of all that wealth but debt.

Another wasteful creature, whose wealth has for years dazzled Paris, came to grief this week. It proved, however, a rehearsal of the final catastrophe which surely awaits her. Acquaintances clubbed and discharged the debt of $4,000 for which execution had been served, and so Cora Pearl was put on her feet again. It seems her diamonds, pearls, horses, carriages have all melted away in the great crucible—debt. Age is rapidly advancing on her, and fevered life ante dates years.

One of our last young men disappeared like a flock of cotton fired by a taper.—Woman may stand—men cannot stand the fierce fever of life in Paris. The master of Cafe Anglais, the fashionable dining and supper room of fast people, has said he rarely sees the same men around his supper tables for more than two years. The majority of them die, some commit suicide, the rest are ruined. He sees the same women for twenty years. Ten generations of men to one generation of women. Which do you call the weaker sex?

Largest amount of Losses to Widows and Orphans!

The Largest Revenue to the States. And has by far the largest number when compared with 58 Companies reported officially by the Commissioners of New York and Massachusetts it will be seen that the Ætna ranks as one of the first Companies of the Continent. But two of the fifty-eight Companies permitted to do business in New York and Massachusetts had so large an income for the year 1868; but two had so large a number of Policies in force, but one among all those incorporated under the laws of the State of New York had so small a per centage of Expense to Income during the year 1868.

Its expenses are lower than most Companies', and consequently its ability to make and pay liberal dividends to the insured is greater than that of most other Companies. It is one of the great Companies of the land in Income, in Assets, in Number of Policies, in Amount Insured, in solidity and Strength, in Soundness, Cheapness, Promptness, and Success. Persons contemplating this mode of investment in the future as in the past would do well to examine the claims of all and take a policy accordingly.

SPARKLING CATAWBA SPRINGS,

CATAWBA COUNTY, N. C.

THIS CELEBRATED WATERING PLACE, formerly called the North Carolina White Sulphur Springs, will be open for visitors on Tuesday, the first day of June next.

Being situated in the northwestern part of the State in a country remarkable for its beauty and healthfulness—these, together with the virtues of the waters, make it one of the most desirable watering places to be found.

The MINERAL WATERS of these Springs are the White and Blue Sulphur and Chalybeate or Iron, and they possess all the finest qualities of these waters, and are sovereign remedies for all diseases of the liver, bowels, stomach and kidneys, eruptions of the skin, scrofula, weakness, debility dyspepsia, rheumatism, &c.

The proprietor having spent a large amount in additional buildings and improvements generally, these Springs are now in a fine condition, rooms large and pleasant, and good cottages containing from two to six rooms each, well arranged for either large or small families.

Good TEN PIN ALLEYS, BILLIARD TABLES and other amusements.

FINE BATH HOUSES, for Pool, Plunge or Shower Bath, Sulphur Bath, Hot or Cold.

A GOOD BAND OF MUSIC

Will be at the Springs the entire season, and a good Physician permanently located for the benefit of invalids, who will have every attention.

Having secured the services of Mr. J. N. Cantes, of Virginia, who has had much experience and stands high as a Hotel keeper, visitors may rest assured that my table will be supplied with the best the market can afford, and everything done that will add to their pleasure and comfort.

The cars on the Western North Carolina Rail Road will leave Salisbury for Hickory Station, the Springs' depot, every morning (Sundays excepted,) in connection with the North Carolina Railroad, avoiding stoppage or delay at Salisbury and arrive at Hickory Station in time for breakfast, where good hacks will be in readiness to take passengers over a beautiful, well-shaded road to the Springs—a distance of six miles.

As an inducement for families and parties to spend two months or more, I have concluded to put board down at the following low rates:

BOARD:

For one single month,	$30 00
For two or more months, $25 per month, or at that rate.

OF GRANVILLE COUNTY,

realizing the importance of spreading the growth of Wheat in this County; and the farmers, knowing so well the absolute necessity of supplying themselves at an early period with "Seed Wheat" of the finest quality, ready to plant in the Fall, the undersigned takes this early method of inviting applications from farmers for what they may require to plant next Fall, of the very "Select Seed Wheat" which he expects to deliver at reasonable prices, from the crop growing now at his "Oakland" Farm, near Townsville, in this County.

This Wheat was planted last Fall, with Guano, of seed selected in Baltimore with great care by my predecessor, Mr. Chas. H. Mc Taylor, who paid $3,25 for it there. It has had the advantage of a heavy top-dressing in Spring of Chicago bone manure, and is now very promising.

Like the good Sorghum Seed which I have offered to the farmers of Granville, I hope the orders for my "Seed Wheat" may be equally attractive, to absorb all that I can expect to spare of it.

Address me at Kittrell's Springs, or Mr. Thos. W. Taylor, at Oakland Farm.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

SATURDAY, JUNE 19, 1869.

"The only allegation of fact on which this "solemn protest" rests, is that, "the Judges, singly or en masse, did rush into the mad contest of politics, under the excitement of drums and flags."

Is this allegation of fact true, or is it false? There is no pretence that it is true.'

The above is a quotation from the opinion of Chief Justice Pearson, delivered in the Supreme Court, to-day, in the case of B. F. Moore, Esq., ex-parte. If there is "no pretense" that the facts stated are true, what significance must we attach to the fact that the Chief Justice himself had a long letter published in the Standard, paragraphs from which were kept standing during the canvass!

What significance must be given to the fact that the names of nearly all the Judges were announced as participants in a great political jubilee! What, to the fact that Judge Dick, during Court week in Greensboro' made a stump speech in favor of the nomination of Judge Tourgee in place of Windy Billy Henderson for Congress, and the presiding Judge, Tourgee, during a recess of the Court, making a speech advocating his own claims to the same position!

But we have not time nor space to-day to elaborate on this subject; we will allude to it more at length on Monday, simply saying that, to our mind, the fact does appear to have some pretense to truth that "the Judges, singly or en masse, did rush into the mad contest of politics."

VIRGINIA.

The political contest in our sister State waxes warm as the time approaches for deciding whether the people of the old commonwealth shall have that bundle of iniquities, concocted by the bogus Convention, called a "Constitution," fastened on them, and have repeated in their State scenes of other Southern States, of a mixture of negroes and carpet-baggers to make laws for them under it, (or "outside" of it;) or, on the other hand, expurgate the unpalatable dish of its most offensive ingredients and elect officers to make and execute the laws, who have a feeling and interest in common with the bona fide citizenship of the State. Hon. Gilbert C. Walker is the Conservative candidate for Governor, and is opposed by the present provisional or military Governor, the notorious Wells.

Mild measures, such as the compromise on negro suffrage couple[d] with full enfranchisement of the whites, seems to be entirely repudiated by the Wells party, who, not content with negro equality, are moving heaven and earth to establish, for their own selfish ends, a Constitution the provisions of which must establish negro supremacy.

There was a rousing mass meeting held on Capitol square in Richmond, on Tuesday afternoon, at which, it is estimated by the Richmond papers, over five thousand persons were present, and which was addressed by Messrs Osid, Neeson and Walker. The last named gentleman, in his remarks, as reported in the Dispatch, speaking of the chances of success of the Conservative party, observed, "This result is of the greatest importance to the whites, and of almost equal importance to the blacks.—The land belongs to the white people, and upon them the blacks depend for support."

A negro in the crowd: "The land belongs to the government."

Mr. Walker answered, "It does, eh!—Well, let me tell you, sir, that I have a little place up the country. Suppose you come and try to take possession of it in the name of the government. I reckon you'll find it the unhealthiest job you ever undertook."

This little episode shows that the teachings of the carpet-baggers and scalawags to the negroes, are the same everywhere; and that Virginia is now undergoing the ordeal and is fighting against the same sort of devilry that beset her "reconstructed" sister States; but with her 40,000 white majority, we have some grounds to indulge the hope that she may prove more successful than some of her sister States in smoothing off the rougher angles of the yoke to be imposed upon her.

U. S. vs. Archil McNeall, illegal distilling. Judgment confessed for $250 and cost.

SUPREME COURT.—To-day was nothing done in this Court this morning after the Chief Justice delivering the opinion of the Court in the case of the protesting lawyers.

Supreme Court of North Carolina—Ex-parte B F. Moore, Esq., Attorney, &c.

The protestation with which the answer opens, is irrelevant to any matter for consideration at this stage of the proceeding, and would not be noticed save that it is calculated to create prejudice in the minds of persons who do not understand the meaning of terms used in judicial proceedings—"laymen" as brother Battle termed them.

This was a rule nisi, to wit: that Mr. Moore, and other gentlemen, be disabled from hereafter appearing as Attorneys in this Court, unless they shall severally appear, on Tuesday, the 15th of June, 1869, and show cause to the contrary, and it was ordered that a copy be served on said Attorneys.

The effect of the rule was to deprive Mr. Moore of his privileges as an Attorney of this Court, until the matter was disposed of. No application was made to alter the form of the rule. Suppose it had been, and the rule put in this shape: Ordered, that notice issue to B. F. Moore, Esq., Attorney, &c., to appear on Tuesday, the 15th inst., and show cause why he shall not be disabled, &c., it would have had the effect of depriving him of the privilege of appearing as an Attorney in this Court until the matter was disposed of. For the order would not have been made except upon prima facie evidence to support it. So, in either form, the effect would have been to deprive Mr. Moore 'temporarily of his privileges as an Attorney of this Court," a necessary accident of the proceeding in either form. Consequently, the form of the rule is no legitimate ground for complaint.

The other objection, that the rule was made without affidavit or other legal proof of the facts, upon which it is based, is equally untenable. It is admitted that where the proof is furnished by the senses of the Judges, it may be acted on. Here, there was such proof. We know by our senses that a newspaper containing the paper referred to, purporting to be signed by Mr. Moore and others, had been extensively circulated and was then in the Court Room; and the want of a disavowal on his part, that he had signed the paper, or consented to its publication, furnished prima facie proof; not sufficient for final action, but all-sufficient as ground for the rule.—On his appearance he was at liberty to deny the fact, without an oath, and the denial, like the plea of "not guilty," would simply have put the fact in issue—and he would have been entitled to have the rule discharged, unless the fact was proved by direct testimony. Instead of that, he admits the fact. So there is no legitimate ground of complaint. In short, all preliminary objections were waived, and the reference to them can answer no useful purpose.

1. "The Respondent insists that the Supreme Court hath no authority to make, or jurisdiction to enforce, said rule." This position is put on the ground that the statute, ratified 10th of April, 1869, defines all matters of contempt, fixes the punishment, fine or imprisonment, or both; and, by implication, ousts the common law jurisdiction of the Court over the morals and behavior of its Attorneys.

We agree with the learned counsel of the Respondent, in the opinion that the statute does not embrace our case. It is not embraced by sub-division 8, section 1: "Misbehavior of any officer of a Court in any official transaction," as receiving money and failing to pay it over. So the question is, are the Courts deprived, by implication, of the power of self protection and the means of relieving themselves from the presence of unworthy Attorneys, or those Attorneys who, by combination, (I will not use the harsher word, conspiracy,) seek to impair the dignity and veneration, with which the Judiciary is invested, by which it can command the respect and confidence of the public,—without which, its usefulness will be greatly impaired, or altogether destroyed? A simple statement of the proposition is sufficient to show that the statute has not that effect.

By another statute, persons who apply for the exclusive privileges of Attorneys at Law, and the right to enjoy the emoluments of the dignified position of "a member of the Bar," and required to produce satisfactory testimonials of good moral character, and thereupon the law tacitly annexed a condition, whereby this exclusive privilege is forfeited after bad conduct; and it is not only the right, but the duty of the Courts, to enforce the forfeiture. Suppose an Attorney of a Court is tried and convicted of "forgery," and the day after enduring infamous punishment, appears in Court; is he to be allowed to exercise the privilege of an Attorney, and has the Court no power to make, or jurisdiction to enforce a rule, to show cause why he shall not be disabled from appearing before it? Or, suppose two or more Attorneys are convicted of a conspiracy, which is an infamous offence; or of a libel, which is also an infamous offence; has the Court no power to rule them out? No one will venture to question the power or duty of the Court to do so. It may be said these are extreme cases; true, but if the statute does not oust the Common Law jurisdiction in such cases, the learned gentlemen must yield the position taken by them.

These cases presuppose trial and conviction for an offence where the Court has no further concern than to preserve the purity of its Bar. But the power and jurisdiction of the Court, apply with equal clearness to cases where the integrity of the Court itself is assailed by a libellous publication made by a combination of a part of its Bar, which, in the argument of this point, is to be assumed to be our case. Under these circumstances, the principle of self-protection, the broad ground on which the whole doctrine rests, call into action the powers of the Court, as soon as there is prima facie evidence of the fact, without waiting for a trial and conviction in another Court,—like the case of mutiny among a crew. The Captain must put a stop to it at once, else he betrays the confidence reposed in him; or, the case of the head of a family who finds some of its members combining together to injure, or to bring him into disrepute, he must rebuke it at the outset, if he would preserve the influence and control necessary for the good of the family.

II. The Respondent insists "that the publication referred to, is not libellous, and doth not tend to impair the respect due to the authority of the said Court." The paper is in these words:

"A SOLEMN PROTEST OF THE BAR OF NORTH CAROLINA AGAINST THE JUDICIAL INTERFERENCE IN POLITICAL AFFAIRS.

The undersigned, present or former members of the bar of North Carolina, have witnessed the late public demonstrations of political partizanship, by the Judges of the Supreme Court of the State, with profound regret and unfeigned alarm for the purity of the future administration of the laws of the land.

Active and open participation in the strife of political contests by any Judge of the State, so far as we recollect, or tradition, or history, has informed us," was unknown to the people until the late exhibitions. To say that these were wholly unexpected, and that a prediction of them, by the wisest amongst us, would have been spurned as incredible, would not express half of our astonishment, or the painful shock suffered by our feelings when we saw the humiliating fact accomplished.

Not only did we not anticipate it, but we thought it was impossible to be done in our day. Many of us have passed through political times almost as excited as those of to-day; and most of us, recently, through one more excited; but, never before, have we seen the Judges of the Supreme Court, singly or en masse, moved from that becoming propriety so indispensable to secure the respect of the people, and, throwing aside the ermine, rush into the mad contest of politics under the excitement of drums and flags. From the unerring lessons of the past we are assured, that a Judge who openly and publicly displays his political party zeal, renders himself unfit to hold the "balance of justice," and that whenever an occasion may offer to serve his fellow-partizan, he will yield to the temptation and the "wavering balance" will shake.

It is a natural weakness in man, that he, who warmly and publicly identifies himself with a political party, will be tempted to uphold the party which upholds him, and all experience teaches us that a partizan judge cannot be safely trusted to settle the great principles of a political constitution, while he reads and studies the book of its laws under the banners of a party.

Unwilling that our silence should be construed into an indifference to the humiliating spectacle now passing around us; influenced solely by a spirit of love and veneration for the past purity, which has distinguished the administration of the law in our State, and animated by the hope that the voice of the bar of North Carolina will not be powerless to avert the pernicious example, which we have denounced and to repress its contagious influence, we have under a sense of solemn duty subscribed and published this paper:

(Signed) B F. MOORE, and others."

This paper is drafted with all the adroitness of a skillful lawyer; and, under cover "of love and veneration for the past purity, which has distinguished the administration of the law in our State," aims a deadly blow at the Court to which that sacred trust is now confided.

Stripped of the gaudy dress by which it is artfully disguised, it amounts to this: A Judge, who openly and publicly displays his political party zeal, renders himself unfit to hold the "balance of justice;" and whenever an occasion may offer to serve his fellow partizan, he will yield to the temptation, and "the wavering balance will shake."

"Never before have we seen the Judges of the Supreme Court, singly or en masse, rush into the mad contest of politics, under the excitement of drums and flags," therefore, the Supreme Court, which is composed of these Judges, is "unfit to hold the balance of justice," and will, on occasion, yield to temptation in favor of a fellow partizan.

If you hurt the head, or arm, or leg, or limb, or member, or any part of the body, you hurt the man. And the idea of an intention to injure the character of the Justices, who compose the Supreme Court, singly or en masse, without an intention to injure the Court, is simply ridiculous.

The only allegation of fact on which this "solemn protest" rests, is that, "the Judges, singly or en masse, did rush into the mad contest of politics, under the excitement of drums and flags."

Is this allegation of fact true, or is it false? There is no pretence that it is true. It is said, this is a figure of speech, suggested by something that was expected to occur, but never did occur; so the allegation of fact is false, and the inference drawn from it is also false.

In our judgment the paper is libellous, and "doth tend to impair the respect due to the authority of the Court."

Indeed, the learned Counsel did not press this point, and were even content to take the ground that there was no criminal intent. Every man is presumed to intend the natural consequence of his act. If one willfully sets fire to his own house, which is so near his neighbor's house, that if one burns the other must burn also, and both houses are burnt down, the man is guilty of arson—the criminal intent is presumed. So, in an indictment for libel, the ground would be untenable, except on proof insanity.

III. And for further answer this Respondent says, that said paper was conceived and prepared during the recent political canvass for the Presidency, and its publication deferred until after the close of the canvass to avoid its having the appearance of a partizan document. He admits that his purpose was to express his disapprobation of the conduct of individuals occupying high judicial stations, yet, as an act of justice to himself against the charge made in the rule, he not only disavows, in saying and publishing said paper, any intention of committing a contempt of the Supreme Court or of impairing the respect due to its authority, but on the contrary, he avows his motive to have been to preserve the purity which had ever distinguished the administration of justice by the Courts of this State."

The learned Counsel then fell back on the ground of a distinction between an indictment for a libel, and a rule nisi to show cause, and assumed, as a matter of law, that in this case, the Respondent having, on oath, disavowed any intention of committing a contempt of the Court, or of impairing the respect due to its authority, as as to meet the words of the Rule, it must be discharged. The authorities cited by the learned counsel are conclusive. The law is well settled in this class of cases, where the intention to injure constitutes the gravamen.

The Rule rests on sound reason. In this proceeding as the Court is jury in its own case, in the first instance, where a case is made out in the judgment of the Court, the party in the last instance, is allowed to try himself. His intention is locked within his own breast, is known to himself alone, and he is permitted to purge himself by his own avowal. He cannot be convicted, if he is innocent, as he may be by false evidence before a jury. For "the Court does not try him, he tries himself." C. J. Wilmot's Opinions, 257 8, referred to on the trial of Judge Peck, 507. If the party after the Court decides against him, declines to try himself, it must be because he knows himself to be guilty.

It affords every member of the Court pleasure, that the Respondent did not decline to make a sufficient disavowal on oath. We agree with the learned Counsel that this disavowal meets the words of the Rule: but we must say, it seems to us in bad taste to have introduced the expression, 'he admits that his purpose was to express his disapprobation of the conduct of individuals occupying high Judicial stations."

This is so vague, that the Court is unable to give to it a positive meaning; and yet, it seems to imply that in taking the oath the Respondent meant something which he hesitated to express, lest it might be taken to neutralize the legal effect of his disavowal. The concluding words of the oath are enough to express the purpose which the Respondent avows he had in view, and the vague words referred to may be treated as surplusage. This presented the only difficulty to coming instantly to our conclusion, that the disavowal is sufficient.

We concur with his counsel in according to Mr. Moore high encomium for his ability, legal learning, integrity, devotion to the Constitution, unwavering love of the Union, and hitherto, a most consistent and influential supporter of the Judicial tribunals of his country.

The motion to discharge the Rule is allowed, on payment of costs, a case having, in the judgment of the Court, been made against the Respondent, so as to call for a disavowal on his part. It is proper that he should pay the costs. He is not acquitted, but excused.

Ex parte Thomas Bragg, Esq., Attorney, &c. Same opinion and order as to ex parte Moore.

Ex parte Ed. G. Haywood, Esq., Attorney, &c. Same opinion and order as in ex parte Moore.

Ex parte Sion H. Rogers, Esq., Attorney, &c., and others embraced in the Rule. The rule will be considered discharged as to these parties, severally, on his filing an answer, that he was not privy to the publication of the paper referred to in the Rule, on the 19th of April, 1869, and does not approve of it. Or otherwise making a disavowal, on oath, of any intention, in signing and publishing said paper, to commit a contempt of the Supreme Court, or to impair the respect due to its authority.

Should any one or more elect to ask for a day to show cause the day will be fixed, on motion, at any time during this term.

GENERAL GRANT IN BOSTON.

Review of General Butler's Militia—The President at the Peace Jubilee.

BOSTON, June 16.

The troops were reviewed this P. M. by President Grant, on Tremont street. The President was received at the right of the line by Major General Butler and staff, and, accompanied by Governor Claflin, rode down the line. The troops presented a fine appearance. The President was repeatedly and enthusiastically cheered. Many houses were gayly decorated with flags. An immense concourse of people thronged Tremont street during the review, and windows and balconies were crowded. Arriving at the left of the line, the President took a position at the corner of Berkley and Appleton streets, when the right wing passed in review, and, escorted by the left wing, he proceeded up Berkley street to the Coliseum, the people greeting him with cheers all along the route.

Alderman White, chairman of the city reception committee, received the President at the Coliseum, where an elegant collation was partaken of, Major Shurtleff doing the honors. In the meantime the Coliseum was packed with fully 50,000 persons.—Every seat was taken, and thousands were glad to find standing room. The ladies were in full dress, and the scene was novel and impressive beyond description.—The crowd outside was immense, probably as large as that within. The President's reception on entering the main building was most enthusiastic. The vast mass arose, and cheer upon cheer, with waving of handkerchiefs hats and other demonstrations greeted him. The President repeatedly bowed his thanks.

The concert programme to-day was mostly a classical performances, and gave complete satisfaction, judging from the applause bestowed. The Star-Spangled Banner and Anvil Chorus aroused tremendous enthusiasm, and were both repeated.

An aria, from Mozart, sung by Adelaide Phillips, received hearty acknowledgment. "Let Bright Seraphim" was sung by Parepa, and received such unbounded applause that she was obliged to repeat it, receiving probably the heartiest ovation ever tendered a songstress in this country. After the performances the President was escorted to the Revere House, where a municipal banquet was provided. About two hundred guests were present. No set speeches were allowed. The President left for Groton this evening as the guest of Secretary Boutwell. He leaves Groton to-morrow forenoon for New York, stopping two hours at Worcester in response to a municipal invitation.

A sad event occurred during the performance in the Coliseum this afternoon by the death of Mrs. Dunlay, of Chicago, of heart disease.

BOSTON, June 17.—The Coliseum for an hour prior to the concert to-day was crammed, and the management was compelled to close the doors. The programme comprised mainly patriotic and popular selections. Parepa-Rosa sang an aria from "Robert." The anvil chorus was given, and an original triumphal overture on American national airs by C. C. Converse, of Brooklyn, was performed.

A grand military march, performed by one thousand instruments, was finely given. The "Star Spangled Banner," sung by Parepa, with full chorus, was repeated in response to enthusiastic calls. The performance closed with singing "Old Hundred" by the whole chorus, accompanied by all the instruments and artillery, the audience joining. Fifty thousand people were outside the building, unable to gain admittance. The ball to-night was a successful and brilliant affair.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,
For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them: those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have, and can show, thousands upon thousands of certificates of remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and why should we publish them? Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus. There are numerous cases where a purgative is required, which we cannot enumerate here, but they suggest themselves to everybody, and where the virtues of this Pill are known, the public no longer doubt what to employ.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,
For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed, as it are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that it is unnecessary to publish the certificates of them here; or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

THE SENTINEL.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

SATURDAY, JUNE 19, 1869.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—See card of Freer & Co., Norfolk, Va.

Old Dominion Nails: J. Brown, with Hart & Lewis.

A young lady who has had three years experience, is desirous of obtaining a situation as Preceptress in a private family.

Franklinton Academy, G. W. Neal, Principal, Rev. W. A. Barrett, Assistant.

CORONER.—Mr. L. N. Keith we learn, gave his bond and was qualified as coroner, before the Board of Commissioners on yesterday.

ANOTHER PROVIDED FOR.—We learn from the Standard that Gov. Holden has tendered to his son-in law, L. P. Olds, Esq., the appointment of Attorney General, and that Mr. Olds has accepted. "He that provideth not for his own, hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel." Victor will have to continue "codifying," until something else offers, that is, if the New York Code is not exhausted.

COTTON.—We were shown yesterday by Mr. R. K. Ferrell, two stalks of cotton—one of our native growth, and one of the newly introduced species known as the Dickson cotton—both grown on his farm. They are both about a foot high, the Dickson having a little the advantage in this respect; but the native stalk is thicker by a third, and has several "squares" fully formed on it; whereas the Dickson has very few. They are the finest specimens we have seen this season.

HEARD FROM AT LAST.—From our short hand reporter, who accompanied the military exhibition to Jones county, we have received our first dispatch, delayed somewhat on account of the courier getting lost in the huckleberry swamps between Camp Colgrove and Trenton.

The expedition reached Selma on the day it left Raleigh, where the soldiers were uniformed in some second-hand or condemned United States jackets and breeches, purchased by the State for special occasions.

Nothing very unusual occurred on the further progress of the detachment until after they left Newbern for Trenton. On the route between these two places some confusion was created in the ranks and some delay occasioned, near a frog pond, by one of the scouts mistaking some noise in the bushes on the right for the snapping of a cannon. A careful reconnoiter resulted in finding a highland terrapin with his shell closed, and it was suggested that the closing of the shell had caused the noise which produced the alarm. This solution, however was not altogether satisfactory and the expedition proceeded with considerable trepidation, until they reached the open old field at the top of the hill. Here they felt comparatively out of danger, and proceeded to the ransacking of haversacks and the imbibation of spiritual consolation.

On reaching the scene of the mighty rebellion, they went into summer quarters on the premises of the late Sheriff Colgrove, at present occupied by his brother, the Senator; where they have remained ever since; the usual monotony of camp life being relieved by those many little episodes of a campaign, so familiar to all who have enjoyed like experiences.

We cannot give all the incidents that have marked the expedition, as given by our short-hand reporter, as that would swell the account to too great dimensions; but if anybody wishes to see them, we have a correct copy written out for their inspection. They have killed one old cow, that had a wart on her "as big as a cigar box," and one old goat.

The boys are enjoying themselves in such pastimes as seven-up, dominoes, rattle-and-snap, &c. No enemy has yet appeared in view, and none has been sought, although reports come in daily, by negroes, that an advance is moving against the camp. An alarm, one night this week brought the full force into line, but it was ascertained that it was caused by a bull frog blundering against a sentinel in the dark, on which the sentinel popped the cap of his musket and fled into camp.

We hope to be able to give regular reports of the campaign hereafter.

We surrender much of our space, to-day, to the opinion of the Supreme Court, delivered by Chief Justice Pearson, in the "contempt" cases, and this we do the more willingly because the decision in this case is anxiously sought for by the public.

We are obliged to postpone several communications which we would like to insert; but our friends must bear with us; we will get in their favors as soon as we can.

A DINNER AT BLAIR'S, Yarboro' hotel, is quite a recherche affair to one accustomed to the every day hog and-hominy meals, which most of us are compelled to put up with in these hard times. In company with some fifty members of the Bench and Bar, and other prominent gentlemen, stopping at the Yarboro', we sat down to dinner there yesterday, and feasted on such a variety of soups, meats, vegetables, topping off with cake and ice cream, that we have felt very little like eating anything since. We but utter the sentiment of those who "have seen and ought to know," when we say that Blair keeps one of the very best hotels in the South.

THE delegates and visitors to the Supreme Council, of the Friends of Temperance, which meets in Louisburg on the 22d inst., will be passed over the various Railroads of the State at half fare.

QUERY.—Did "Collards" Whitson go to Portsmouth on Wednesday last to see Brother Bill?

HON. W. A. GRAHAM arrived in this City this morning.

PEN AND INK SKETCHES OF THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA, AS IT HAS BEEN.

DEDICATED TO THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE, AND TO THE ALUMNI OF THE UNIVERSITY.

NO. 13.

DURING THE WAR.

The Senior Class of 1860 numbered 84. More than one fourth of these fell in the war. The whole body of students rushed into military service with such ardor, that of the Freshman class alone, but one remained to go through the four years course. He was in feeble health. Seven members of the Faculty joined the army: five of them laid down their lives in the service. Gov. Swain and the remaining Professors resolved to keep the doors of College open as long as half a dozen boys could be kept together. It was a great point with the Governor to do this. He wished to have it to say that at no time since the foundation of the College, had the regular exercises been suspended, or the doors closed. He knew very well that if kept going, its own momentum would carry a great institution on and over the shallows, but that once fairly stopped and shut up, a very great force would have to be employed to set the machinery at successful work, and draw back the tide of patronage. He drew upon himself considerable odium in some quarters by interfering successfully when the rigid enforcement of the conscript law was about to take away the few that remained, or had come in, by 1863. President Davis agreed with Gov. Swain in his object and said the "seed-corn" must not be ground up. However in 1864, Secretary Seddon insisted on the enforcement of the law, so that in the spring of 1865, when Sherman's army entered Chapel Hill and took possession there were only ten or twelve boys, principally from the village, still keeping up the name of a College. One of the Professors rang the College bell, and morning and evening prayers were still kept up while the army remained. At the commencement of '65 there was one graduate, Mr. Prout, who had gone through the whole four years course.

CHAPEL HILL IN THE WAR

How people lived during the war is yet a mystery. Those who call themselves very poor now, spend with all their economy, more in one month than during any one year of the war. Those especially were tried who had to maintain the decencies of genteel life, who could not go barefoot, nor live on turnip greens and corn bread. How did the Faculty at Chapel Hill live, who were struggling to do their duty to the State, and fit such of her sons as remained for the duties of life? They came down cheerfully to the lowest level. I hope I violate none of the proprieties of life when I say that I dined at the tables of some of them on brown peas and corn bread, and a minute piece of bacon. I heard them say, they would have taken $30 in specie for the whole of their last year's salary. Gov. Swain alone of them all, could have afforded to live better, but he chose to do as the rest, and set an example of cheerful conformity to the general privation. A great assistance to the Faculty was the giving them permission to get their wood from the University woodlands in the neighborhood of Chapel Hill. If they had had to buy their wood, they could not have lived on their salaries.

The privations of Chapel Hill, however, were no greater than those common to the whole South. Her losses in battle were perhaps more severe than of any other village of the same size. Thirty-five of her best young men went out and returned no more.

THE CLOSE OF THE WAR.

Peace found the University and its resources prostrate, as were the private fortunes of most of our citizens. By the repudiation of the war debt and the consequent insolvency of the banks, the entire endowment of the college was annihilated.

Gov. Swain and the Executive Committee of the Board had always managed the finances of the University with great shrewdness, and a strict attention to economy. The salaries of the Professors were never liberal—if we except that of the Bursar, whose fees must have doubled his income; and when ever they were raised it was done most cautiously at the rate of "fifty dollars more." A tenderly conscientious enough. Among the Faculty, there was always a disposition to keep clear of any perquisites of office, so that nothing of the kind should ever be charged upon them.—When Dr. Phillips' two sons were ready to enter college, it was settled as a precedent that the sons of the Faculty should always pay for their tuition, nor be admitted on any terms that looked like "favor." The consequence of this strict attention to details was that the earnings of the college derived from its tuition fees, enabled its authorities to make such additions to the college buildings, library, apparatus, &c., &c., and such permanent improvements in the grounds as amounted in value to at least one hundred thousand dollars.

Besides this, the University was giving to the State every year the education of ten young men, its Beneficiaries. The two Literary Societies each defrayed the expenses of two more. So that even now in her greatest humiliation and prostration the University of North Carolina does not stand before the State in the attitude of a spendthrift and squanderer of public money, but may point proudly to her record. She has earned through her hard-working, steady Faculty, and she has gratuitously bestowed upon the State an amount equal to the whole endowment sunk in the banks! All this is yet available. IT IS NOT LOST. The tears rush into my eyes as I write these words. This great sum earned by the University, invested in her magnificent Halls and in the gratuitous education of her sons is yet available. Here are the Buildings, and here are the men.

HER BENEFICIARIES.

I do not know of any man who ever graduated at Chapel Hill receiving his education as a free gift from the University is ashamed of the fact. I do not know why any one should be. But for fear there may be some possessed by such false feeling, I will mention no name, but simply content myself with saying that the University has no need to be ashamed of them as a body. Many of them have gone out to do honor to her name and to illustrate in every walk of life the excellence of her training.

A great man said once on the subject of giving, "I have great faith in the power of little."

The money invested in the education of the Beneficiaries of the University may now be paid back with compound interest if these gentlemen, wherever found with means in their hands, will come forward in solid phalanx and say, "Here, these and such things I owe to the University,—my education, my profession, my station in life, all that I have ever been able to do for the good of others, all that I have ever enjoyed from a love of Truth, and Beauty, and Goodness,—my whole career in life, fortune, friends, or fame,—I lay it all to the beneficence that held a hand out to me in early life—I come now to pay the debt back, and pay it gladly. I give so much, and so much, and so much towards endowing a Professorship, in the name of one of those venerable men who instructed me,—or towards founding a scholarship in my own name that shall widen the University's means of doing good henceforth and shall carry my name with honor down to coming years.

What a noble spectacle to the whole world would this be. If the BENEFICIARIES of the University of North Carolina be the first to come to the rescue, what a fresh impulse to the great Truth that of the three things that abide and are available when all else is lost, CHARITY is the greatest.

STATE NEWS.

STURGEONS.—Eight large sturgeon were captured yesterday by Mr. Jos. Piver, a fisherman at this market, at Donalson, on the Northwest branch of the Cape Fear, 12 miles from the city. The haul was a good one.—Wil. Jour.

MAIL AGENT.—It will be remembered that not long ago Gen. H. Adams, Mail Agent on the W. & M. Railroad, was removed, and his position given to Jos. N. Hostler, colored. From causes unknown to us, Hostler has been removed, and Adams reinstated in his former place.—Wilmington Star.

SOMETHING NEW.—A party is here from New York, connected with a large Bakery in that city, for the purpose of buying in a supply of green berries, apples, &c., for transportation North, to be used for buying purposes. They have put up a steaming apparatus on Mr. E. A. Vogler's premises, where the fruit is steamed or cooked, barreled up and shipped to New York, via Wilmington, N. C.—Salem Press.

Some weeks since a citizen of this city was fined $100 for abusing and insulting the police. This citizen was a Democrat. Yesterday a prominent Republican was arraigned for precisely the same offence and he was made to—bear the costs of the suit. What a Court of special justice have we, and who would not be arraigned before so model a tribunal and take his chance.—Wil. Jour.

CHILD SHOT.—A colored child, aged about three years, whose name we could not learn, was accidentally shot yesterday in a house near the Zion A. M. E. Church, corner of Seventh and Nun streets, by a boy of about eight years. The wound was purely accidental and was inflicted by a pistol which the boy was examining at the time. It entered the back of the child, passing through the right lung and coming out at the side. The wound was examined and dressed by Dr. J. F. Erikenker, who pronounces it dangerous.—Wilmington Journal.

Track-laying on the St. Louis, Vandalia and Terra Haute railway will be completed July 1, and through trains from St. Louis to Chicago and other lake villages, via the Illinois Central, will commence running after that date.

TELEGRAPHIC.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, June 18.—Revenue to-day is $627,000.

Andrew Johnson visits Washington the first of July.

Nearly half a million dollars in three per cent certificates were redeemed yesterday.

The President has appointed Thos. S. King, of Atlanta, route agent between Atlanta and Chattanooga.

Dr. Brink Consul to Mexico is made to say that the administration will soon adopt a positive policy towards Mexico.

It is stated that Judge Pierrepont, district Attorney for the Southern District of New York, arrested several Cubans under the direction of Attorney General Hoar, who reproved Pierrepont for a dereliction of duty in not acting sooner.

FROM VIRGINIA.

STAUNTON, June 18.—Members of the State Medical Convention visited Weyer's Cave yesterday. In the morning session to-day, Dr. Ray read a paper on an abnormal condition of the mind occurring in cases of fever, acute inflammation and paralysis where patients apparently perfectly sane afterwards on recovery declare they have no recollection of what they did. The paper was debated by nearly all the members for two hours and ordered to be printed.

FROM SOUTH CAROLINA.

CHARLESTON, June 18.—It is officially announced that the interest on the State of South Carolina Bonds and Stock for the two years ending July 1st next, will be paid. On and after that day the interest on the Bonds will be paid in New York and in Columbia, and on the registered Stock, in Columbia only.

FROM WILMINGTON.

WILMINGTON, June 18.—Arrived, "Pioneer," from Philadelphia, and "Fairbanks," from New York. Weather slightly cloudy; wind west; thermometer 86.

FROM NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, June 18.—The captured Cubans paid the Ludlow street jailor twenty dollars each for a bed. The Herald says Minister Senor Lersundi was found at his residence in Brooklyn at a late hour, but declined to recognize the officer who presented the order and refused to permit himself to be arrested. He give parole to appear in the morning at Court and answer. The officers acknowledged they had been well paid to make the arrest at that late hour, the presumption being that it was intended to subject him to the personal indignity of an imprisonment at an hour when no Court was in session to take cognizance of bail. The verbiage of the bond to keep the peace is to be of good behavior towards the United States, and shall refrain from any violation of the neutrality laws or any breach of the peace of the United States for the term of one year. The whole proceeding was characterized by a degree of rufianism and brutality unworthy of the fame that New Yorkers and Americans hold dear. These Cubans may have violated the international law of the country, yet nevertheless, they were entitled to the common privileges accorded from time immemorial to the refugees of tyranny from every climate.

Mr. Evarts appeared for Senor Lersundi. The "Quaker City," now known as "Columbia," sailed to-day under British colors, but will hoist rebel colors on reaching Bayties waters. She has been altered into a powerful war vessel.

FROM CINCINNATI.

CINCINNATI, June 18.—A joint committee of the Board of Trade and Chamber of Commerce have arranged to have cannon fired, bells rung, and music, on the 26th, when a rate on the $10,000,000 appropriation will be taken for a Southern railroad.

SAY OF THE BROOKLYN LIFE!

"A Company that makes such endorsements on its policies, gives the strongest pledge that it will fulfil its trust faithfully, and keep its coverage sufficient."—HON. ELIZUR WRIGHT.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has placed itself in the vanguard of insurance reform, and is the first Company that has done full and complete justice to the insured."—INSURANCE TIMES, Jan. 1869.

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, ALONE OF ALL OTHER LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES, GUARANTEES A DEFINITE SURRENDER-VALUE IN CASH, AND EVERY POLICY ISSUED BY THAT COMPANY, BEARS A CERTIFICATE STATING WHAT THIS EXACT WORTH WILL BE IN DOLLARS AND CENTS, AT ANY TIME, AFTER THE PAYMENT OF TWO OR MORE PREMIUMS.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has made no half-way work of the adoption of this inestimable feature. It is noteworthy, in this connection, as a merited tribute to the excellent Company (Brooklyn Life,) which has so gallantly raised the standard of reform in Life Insurance, that we find in the whole list of existing Companies, few competitors which deserve so much credit in respect of economy of management, or care, skill and judgment in the selection of risks."—INS. The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid, and now pays to its policy-holders, LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

THE MAIDENS PRAYER.

She rose up from her delicious sleep;
And put away her soft brown hair,
And in a tone so low and deep,
As love's first whisper, breathed a prayer;
Her snow-white hands together pressed,
Her blue eyes sheltered in the lid,
The folded linen on her breast
Just swelling with the charms it hid

And from her long and flowing dress
Escaped a bare and snowy foot,
Whose step upon the earth did press
Like a wave upon the soft and mute;
And then from out the folds soft and warm,
Like a young eye just fresh from Heaven,
She bowed the most perfect and matchless form.
And humbly prayed to be forgiven.

Oh, God! if souls as pure as these Need daily mercy from thy throne—
If she upon her bended knees,
Our holiest and purest one—
She, with a face so clear and bright,
Wisdom her unerring chief of light;
If she, with those soft eyes and tears,
Day after day in her young years,
Must kneel and pray for grace from Thee,
How hardly if she win not Heaven,
Will our wild errors be forgiven.

LIFE INSURANCE.

NATIONAL

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF THE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Chartered by Special Act of Congress, Approved July 25th, 1868.

CASH CAPITAL,

$1,000,000,

PAID IN FULL.

It is no longer a question with any man, who tenderly loves his wife and children, who considers how helpless would be their condition in case of his death, as to the duty of taking out a LIFE POLICY, but as to which Company he shall pay his money.

If he reflects a moment he will conclude to patronize the Company which shows the greatest degree of vitality, which extends its business over the largest area, which is a Home Company in every locality; which furnishes insurance at the least cost; which insures no policies that are forfeitable should he be unable next year, or any subsequent year to pay his renewal; and which is undoubtedly able to meet ALL ITS PROMISES.

With these feelings and views, he looks over the newspapers and, by the time he gets through reading the advertisements of Mutual or Mixed Companies, he finds his mind so fuddled that he is at a loss where to go or what to do. He can not comprehend one-half that is written, and concludes that none but Actuaries, who are familiar with the principles upon which Life Insurance is based can comprehend or explain anything about dividends and his liability for notes given in part payment of premiums. In his dilemma, he looks into the plan adopted by the

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

U. S. A.,

and finds just what he wants:

An ALL-CASH PLAN, reduced to the LOWEST MINIMUM Rate, like any commodity in Market, so much Insurance for so much Money. No notes to give; no interest to pay; no anxiety about Assessments; no apprehension of his Policy being forfeited next year if he does not pay his annual Renewal; and the RATES so much LOWER than other Companies, that he realizes a larger Dividend, IN ADVANCE, than other Companies can pay him in the future.

He finds that, instead of this UNCERTAIN PROMISE, and present high rate that the presents a certain and definite sum for a much lower rate, and puts up its paid up Capital of

NATIONAL

as a guarantee fund, that its contracts will be fulfilled, and, like thousands of others, cheerfully calls on their Agent to make his application for a Policy. Hence the unprecedented and most wonderful success of the NATIONAL as contrasted with the older and Mutual Companies.

The Company issued its first policy on the 1st of August, 1868, and up to March 1st, 1869, it had issued 3,552 policies.

Amount insured,	$10,005,550.00
Total premiums,	226,117.03

The whole number issued by the Connecticut Mutual in the first year of its existence was 992

By the Mutual Benefit of New Jersey,	698
" New England Mutual,	543
" Phœnix Mutual,	335
" Massachusetts Mutual,	313
" Equitable of New York,	277

The Mutual Life, of New York, in the first year of its existence, only issued 470 policies.

In its 10th year,	1,260 "
And in its 20th year,	2,642 "

this latter being 600 less than was issued by the NATIONAL in its first seven months.

CAPITAL OF THE STATE,

Daily, Semi-Weekly and Weekly.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him.

It will be the zealous and fearless advocate of the CONSTITUTION of the United States, seeking to bring the people back to their ancient reverence for that immortal instrument, and to restore the policy of the country to that honored standard, as the only guarantee of National prosperity.

It will do justice to the men and measures of the present day, whenever they may merit it, but it will unsparingly lash and denounce all who set themselves up in opposition to the Federal Constitution, and hold up to the public indignation corruption and imbecility in high places.

It will ardently seek the promotion of the best interests of North Carolina,—moral, educational, material and political.

THE LATEST NEWS

From every quarter, both by mail and telegraph, will be carefully collated and presented.

Full and correct market and financial reports will be given.

And, in one word, no effort will be spared to make the SENTINEL, in all respects, a reliable

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

THIS BOILER IS MOST EFFECTUAL, reliable and universally recommended. It can be used on any Stove or Range, in any boiler, and the low rates of the private phones it within the reach of every family.

This Boiler operates upon purely philosophical principles, is self-acting, and dispenses with labor and the wear of the clothes.

The hot suds and steam, by the action of heat, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing all articles, from the finest laces to the bed-blanket. For flannels it is invaluable, as it does not full them as in the old process of rubbing and pressing.

The time required for steaming a boiler full of clothes is twenty to thirty minutes, and nearly three hundred gallons of boiling suds are forced through the latter, thoroughly steaming and effectually the dirt WITHOUT LABOR or friction.—A thorough rinsing finishes the process.

Washing day will no longer be a terror and dread to housewives. The cost of the boiler will soon be returned in the SAVING OF TIME AND LABOR, and the great saving in the wear of clothes.

The great value of this invention appears so clear, and appeals so directly to common sense, that we have deemed it unnecessary to accompany its introduction with numerous letters of approval, &c.

No invention has met with such ready sale and given such satisfaction. Call at LOUGEE & MILLIKEN'S, and see its wonderful operations.—We have the exclusive right to sell and manufacture in the state.
